

SHOTS ARE FIRED IN POLICE CHASE OF DRUG SELLER

Special Squads Fire at Prisoners After Masquerading as "Dope" Slaves.

The relentless and well managed squads of Police Commissioner Woods against the purveyors of cocaine, heroin and other drugs brought to the line at Headquarters to-day a number of watery-eyed, listless men who were charged with selling "dope" to detectives who spent yesterday and last night masquerading as drug slaves.

Detectives Andemann, Roos and Blawett were sent by Lieut. Costigan to clean up the East Fourteenth street section. Andemann has been ill for a number of weeks and his face was pale. He looked the part of a "dope" slave, and he feigned the nervousness of one unable to get his needed share of the drug. John Herbert of No. 318 Greenwich street came to him as he sat on a doorstep and asked: "What's the matter with you? You want the yen?"

"I'm crazy for it," said the detective. He fished out a two-dollar bill which had been marked and Herbert crossed the street and gave the money to Morris Goldman, who lives in the neighborhood. Herbert got some heroin, which he gave the detective. When the transaction was finished he and Goldman were arrested.

Detectives Cloonan and Hughes, dressed up as United States sailors, went hunting for sufficient cocaine or heroin to last them on a voyage and they opened negotiations with a marked ten dollar bill with John Franklin, of No. 372 Eighth street. Franklin got a supply of heroin for them. Leo Dreyfus, who runs a drug store at No. 231 Second avenue, and Franklin were arrested.

William Harrington was caught in a similar trap at Thirty-second street and Eighth avenue. He broke away from the detectives and was pursued down Tenth avenue. Two shots fired at his heels brought him to a halt. The people of the neighborhood tried to rescue him, but the detectives held them off. A woman, who gave the name of Sadie Cattlewirth, was so bold as to take her into custody on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The crusade against drug selling, inaugurated by the Commissioner, is proving more successful than was expected, and special squads in every part of the city where there is traffic in "dope" are bringing in men and women who sell the stuff daily to Headquarters.

FIRST CURVE PITCHER DEAD.

Best Dorr Was One of the Stars of Baseball Years Ago.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., June 18.—Best Dorr, the first man to master the art of curving a baseball, died at his home here to-day. Dorr was considered one of the game's greatest pitching stars in the old days. He was a member of both the old Cincinnati and Washington teams.

Charles Dorr, a brother of the dead baseball player, resides in Brooklyn.

NEIGHBORHOOD PATRIOTS PLAN ROUSING FOURTH

Decorations, Music and Street Festival Ordered by Richmond Street Association.

The Safe and Sane Fourth of July movement is rapidly spreading throughout the Greater City. The latest section to report plans for a grand festival is that represented by the Richmond Street Neighbors Association. William Harbold, president; John Givens, treasurer; William Smith, secretary. Festivities will be held in the open street bounded by Fulton street and Ridgewood avenue, Brooklyn.

The committee on arrangements have not spared its labor or have the contributors been backward. The committee has arranged to have the street, sidewalks and houses decorated.

Theodore Snider, an expert signer, has drawn the plans for the decorations with a view to surpass anything so far attempted by any of the neighboring patriots. Prof. Bailey will have his hand out for the musical programme.

This is the committee: Oscar Meffert, chairman; Theodore Snider, Harry Harbold, William Winters, Henry Meffert, A. E. Vinger and Nathaniel Schnapper. Other sections of the East New York district will hold block celebrations, including Crystal street, between Pitkin and Glenmore avenues, and Euclid avenue, between Ridgewood and Jamaica avenues.

SARDINE CANNERIES CLOSE.

Breton Packers and Fishers Cannot Agree.

PARIS, June 18.—The owners of sardine factories at Concarneau, the headquarters of the Brittany sardine fishery, decided to-day to shut down their claim their right to buy sardines by weight. Fishers want to sell by the thousand.

The lockout probably will extend along the whole coast of Brittany.

OUTING FOR NEWSBOYS HAS FRIEND IN MAYOR

Public Urged to Swell Motion Picture Receipts That Will Go to Vacation Fund.

Mayor Mitchell has given his warm endorsement to the plan of giving the newsboys of the city an all summer's outing in camp on Staten Island. In a letter to the public in endorsing the efforts of the committee in charge to raise funds for this purpose, he says: "The plan to provide holidays for the boys of the Newsboys' Home Club deserves liberal support. The average citizen is accustomed to seeing boys in the streets at all hours, but I am sure very few of us realize how hard they work and under what difficulties, and what a necessary service they perform. I am told receipts of two theatres for the week of June 22 are to be applied to this vacation fund. I sincerely hope there will be a generous response from the public." About two thousand boys will be cared for in the camp, and the Shuberts have agreed to donate the receipts of the Lyric and Casino theatres for all of next week to the cause. At the Lyric Theatre will be produced the motion picture play "Little Lord Fauntleroy"; at the Casino Paul Ramey's new African hunting pictures will be shown.

Are Your Feet Like Balls of Fire?

Poor old feet—aching, throbbing, cramped and sore from standing, walking, tramping over weary miles of floor or pavement. Wouldn't you like to feel as foot-glad as a barefoot boy in the meadow-grass? You can! Johnson's Foot Soap will do it. Take home a cake to-night—a soothing foot-bath with it brings the joy of youth back into city-wearied, shoe-tortured feet. It positively draws out the pain and fatigue, and makes you ready for the evening's rest or recreation. At all druggists—a big cake for 25c.
